Small Business Classification

To Whom It May Concern:

SMD Inc. is considered a small business under NAICS Code: 423690

In order to classify as a Small Business concern with this NAICS code, we must have had less than 250 employees at the end of 2019.

However, different government agencies have different standards, depending on the type of work we are bidding, in some cases we must have less than 100 employees, for example, to qualify for their specific requirement.

Please forward all inquiries, forms, or questions to support@smdinc.com.
